

Arnett Howard

In Central Ohio, Arnett Howard is a legend. No matter what he plays or who he plays with, he always brings out the crowds. His energetic personality and musicianship have made him perhaps the best-known entertainer in the region.

Backed by a lineup of seasoned Columbus musicians, Arnett has performed over 4000 concerts since 1985 – for audiences big and small, people young and old, in Central Ohio and worldwide. No matter what the event needs, Arnett has the band and the repertoire to make it sizzle, turning up the heat with:

- New Orleans–Style Street Parade Music & Jazz
Featuring trumpets, trombones & tuba
- Motown/Memphis/New Orleans Rhythm and Blues
(with a splash of reggae!)
- Creole, Cajun & Zydeco Dance Music
- Classic Riverboat Songs and Sing Alongs
- Contemporary Pop & Jazz Standards

This multi-faceted musician is also a teacher and historian (he co-authored Listen For the Jazz: Keynotes in Columbus History and Columbus, the Musical Crossroads). Besides playing for private and public functions, Arnett offers schools, libraries and non-profits a number of educational (and highly interactive) music presentations.

There is simply no stopping Arnett Howard! So why not put this show-stopper to work for you?

"...absolutely loved him...the music, the band, his graciousness as a host, and the list goes on..."
- DePhilip Wedding

"...always such a big hit and a joy to witness...a special talent for making children feel like they are part of the music..."
- Franklin County Children Services

"...your ability to share some familiar and beautiful music brought a heartfelt touch of home to our patients..."
- OSU James Cancer Hospital
