

Dwight Lenox

And The

Lenox Avenue Express

Growing up in New York, Dwight Lenox honed his talent in the church choir. He went on to study and perform musical styles as diverse as country and rock n' roll. His gospel roots, combined with such childhood influences as Nancy Wilson, Nat Cole, and Sarah Vaughn, made jazz a natural showcase for his talent.

From blues to ballads and jazz to swing, Dwight shines. His impeccable instincts and warm sound have garnered the attention of some of the finest musicians in the industry. He's performed with Sammu Tucker and renowned organist Hank Marr. He's been showcased alongside the likes of Freddie Hubbard, Bobbie Humphreys, Ramsey Lewis, and Herbie Mann. As a featured vocalist with the 17-piece Columbus Jazz Orchestra, he's shared the stage with Harold Jones and Carmen Bradford.

Dwight's vast repertoire includes the music of Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra, James Ingram, Stevie Wonder, Lou Rawls and many more. His natural talents are showcased in the performance of his original compositions. Lenox has been featured on numerous recordings, including works for commercial and corporate use. He is equally as comfortable in the studio as he is onstage.

Performing at galas, fundraisers, private parties and clubs with his band The Lenox Avenue Express, Dwight's musical brilliance has taken him from New York to LA and everywhere along the way. Once you hear this gifted vocalist, you'll agree that this is the start of a long and successful musical journey.
